"A little dab'll do you"

promised Wildroot Cream Oil. (Further, girls'll all pursue you, loving their fingers through your hair).

Boy GIs in Germany shoved this credo to Dortmunder Actien Beer, DAB.

Does this close the linguistic chapter?
Never, all phrases as

infinite as beauty
compared to summer

days.